From the President's Desk

by Cicero Town President Larry Dominick

Dear Cicero residents,

Summertime in Cicero is just around the corner.

As the temperatures climb and schools reach the end of their academic year, outdoor fun in Cicero warms up. As is tradition, we kick off with the Cinco de Mayo celebration at the Cicero Fairgrounds, 34th & Laramie, from May 2-5. This is one of the largest Mexican American celebrations in the region, featuring a diverse lineup of bands and DJs. It's a family-friendly event where everyone can enjoy thrilling rides, explore a variety of booths, and indulge in a wide array of delicious Mexican cuisine.

Cinco de Mayo is an excellent start to the outdoor slate of festivals and celebrations throughout the town from now until the fall. Before long, we'll enjoy one of my favorite holidays: Independence Day. Beforehand, though, we'll kick off Summer in the Park, a months-long series of outdoor activities to give families something fun to do while school is out.

Outdoor activities for our senior residents include a trip to Shipshewana, Bingo in the Park, and other fun in-store activities as the temperatures stay warm.

As you likely have heard, we're continuing to take action after last year's devastating flood. This year's budget will include funding to study new and essential ways to mitigate future flooding, in addition to the $21 million we've been able to set aside for water, sewer, and other vital improvements to our infrastructure. All of this is being done without raising property taxes.

Our priority has always been maximizing the services we get from every dollar collected in the town. Our record of holding the line on taxes has reflected that priority over the years. We do not rely on property taxes as many other communities do to address our needs. We hold the line and maximize everything from every dollar we collect.

Sincerely,

Larry Dominick
Cicero Town President

P.S. As always, please feel free to contact me with concerns, questions, comments or suggestions at larry@thetownofcicero.com. Thank you.

Cicero Celebrates Centenarian's Birthday

The Town of Cicero commemorated a milestone on April 19, as it celebrated the 104th birthday of centenarian Connie Schullo. President Larry Dominick orchestrated a grand Super Senior Birthday caravan in her honor, with Cicero Police, Fire Department personnel, and numerous town officials joining the festivity.

Expressing her astonishment, Collector Fran Reitz remarked, "I actually have the chills and it's not from being chilly. The fire trucks, the police vehicles, all the town representatives are here to celebrate Connie Schullo's 104th birthday today."

"We got here flowers, balloons, key lime pie – which is her favorite," Reitz added, highlighting the thoughtful gestures extended to Mrs. Schullo.

"This is what Cicero does for seniors 90 and older, and she's 104," Collector Reitz emphasized, underlining the community's commitment to honoring its elderly residents.

Grateful and overwhelmed by affection, Mrs. Schullo said, "Thank you very much and I appreciate it. Living in Cicero is the best town you could live in. They do a lot for their senior citizens. Everybody stay in Cicero and don't leave."

Spokesperson Ray Hanania conveyed the heartfelt sentiments of the organizers, informing Mrs. Schullo, "Larry and Diana wanted to do this great surprise for you," upon her delighted reunion with him.

Mrs. Schullo holds a special place in the heart of Cicero, the grandmother of Deputy Dominic Schullo of the Cicero Police Department. Reflecting on her significance to their family, Deputy Schullo remarked, "She's the matriarch to our family. From owning a restaurant on Roosevelt and Austin and she's still here. It's very emotional. Seeing everybody here, Town President Larry Dominick, Senior Center Director Diana Dominick. What you guys did for her is heartwarming."

Deputy Schullo further revealed that his grandmother had been unaware of the birthday caravan until moments before its arrival, adding an element of surprise to the already joyous occasion.

Town President Larry Dominick meets with Connie Schullo, who turned 104 in April as part of Cicero's Super Senior Program, honoring those who turn 90 or older.

Town Officials, Police, Fire, and residents gather at Connie Schullo to celebrate her 104th Birthday.

Inaugural Emergency Response Team Graduates

The Town of Cicero has welcomed 75 volunteers who, as of April 15th, constitute Cicero's inaugural Certified Emergency Response Team (CERT). Yesterday, Town President Larry Dominick marked this significant town-wide achievement with a graduation ceremony at the council chambers.

"It's amazing to see so many people volunteer, and that shows they're part of the community. As I said in the meeting, I volunteered for the Little League for 20 years and had three teams yearly. It gives you that good feeling after you do something," Dominick said. "So many nice people are here today, they graduated. I'm so proud of them. Everyone involved makes Cicero a much better community, and that's what we're here for."

Acknowledging the support received, Dominick extended gratitude to Cook County President Toni Preckwinkle and Congressman Chuy Garcia for their assistance in ensuring the success of the CERT program in Cicero.

Town Chaplain Ismael Vargas received a standing ovation during the graduation ceremony for guiding the Cicero CERT volunteers through the rigorous eight-week training program.

Dominick commended the successful teamwork that facilitated the program, stating, "I pick good people to lead things; it makes my job easier. We work as a team, no matter who it is. We work as a team, and that's why we get things done."

The diverse CERT volunteers include Parent Patrols, clergy members, and Town of Cicero department heads, reflecting the broad community participation in the program.

Dominick announced plans for future CERT classes, emphasizing the ongoing commitment to community preparedness.

The CERT volunteers await their certificates of completion as the inaugural group of volunteers to complete the program.

Chaplain Ismael Vargas, Senior Director Diana Dominick, Town President Larry Dominick and Clerk Maria Punzo-Arias.

Vargas characterized the occasion as more than just a celebration, describing it as a significant accomplishment for the community's safety and resilience.

Clerk Maria Punzo-Arias expressed gratitude to elected officials and Cook County staff for their support, particularly highlighting Dominick's unwavering commitment to the community's welfare.

Certified trainers from Illinois volunteered their expertise to train eager Cicero residents, reinforcing the town's readiness to face any emergency. Dominick had the opportunity to personally congratulate these trainers, underscoring Cicero's enhanced preparedness to assist police and fire departments in times of crisis.

Masonic Lodge Honors Senior Director, Among Others

The Berwyn-Cicero Masonic Lodge No. 839 board presented its annual "2024 Community Builders Award" on April 23 to three individuals, including the director of the Senior Center, Diana Dominick, for their service to the community.

Lodge Chairman Jose Villareal was joined by members Brigido Tan, James Hrejsa, Greg Capps, Rolando Hernandez, and Jojo Alamillo, who made the presentation during the Cicero Town Board meeting to Senior Center Director Diana Dominick, Cook County Commissioner Frank Aguilar, and Town Spokesman Ray Hanania.

"This is one of the many tributes we pay to the people who go up and beyond the call of duty for our communities," Villareal said.

"We're proud to present this award to Mrs. Diana Dominick for the wonderful work she does for our senior community as director of the Senior Center, planning wonderful outings making it interesting for all of our senior citizens, in Cicero. She does it with the support of our Town President Larry Dominick, who is always there assisting its citizens, and with the support of the members of the Town of Cicero board."

Villareal praised Aguilar for "fighting to bring the services our community needs and deserves as a member of the Cook County Board. Commissioner Aguilar is a strong representative of the people who fights for our rights and needs."

Hanania was recognized for presenting the Town's achievements "in a clear and effective manner," and for confronting and clarifying the false claims made by activists and critics concerned mainly about politics rather than community services.

"I am honored to receive this award and I will continue to fight for the rights of our residents," Aguilar said.

Mrs. Dominick was joined by 50 Senior Center members and several staff members during the award presentation.

"It is quite an honor to receive this award. Although I feel that I am only doing my job as a Senior Center Director, I am forever grateful to be recognized for the work our department does," Mrs. Dominick said.

"Working with and helping seniors, has been one of my passions since I was young and I am truly appreciative of the fact that I can have a career I love and enjoy doing every day. ... It would not have been possible without the support of our Town President Larry Dominick, who has inspired me and supported the Senior Center in the many improvements and ideas that we envision."

Mrs. Dominick noted the activities and services provided to seniors, "Including our trips, our daily activities at the Senior Center, our wonderful events at the Community Center and all the amazing handyman programs and home services that our seniors receive which has resulted in our community to be one of the top cities to offer seniors the widest range of services to seniors of any community in the Midwest."

Mrs. Dominick said the Senior Center team must share the award, acknowledging her staff: Isabella Aguilar and Princess Tejada, all our wonderful volunteers, and especially our Town President Larry Dominick, who provides our foundation of progress, safety, and prosperity."

Hanania said he is proud to serve at the pleasure of President Dominick and the Board of Trustees to ensure that Cicero is recognized for its work and services.
