From the President's Desk

by Cicero Town President Larry Dominick

Dear Cicero residents,

Winter in Cicero is always a fun time. There are many reasons to be excited for the season, from the holiday events to the cold-weather opportunities.

To add to this year's fun, we welcome a new restaurant to Cicero: Portillo's. This project has been a long time coming, but I am proud the famous chain has planted its latest location right here. It's even more fun to welcome them with how they've decorated the interior with nostalgic images and memorabilia that recall Cicero's vibrant history.

When you get a chance, whether on your way home from Christmas shopping or after enjoying the ice rink, check out Portillo's, enjoy their great food, and walk through our history along the walls.

Because the weather is getting colder, being good neighbors in the community is essential. Cicero winters can get cold. Just last Christmas, we saw temperatures drop below zero. When temperatures drop below freezing, we too often see pets outside suffering. While they can be heartier than we can with their fur coats, not even our furry friends can withstand such extreme temperatures.

Bring pets indoors to help them stay safe and warm. When you can, check on your neighbors, especially your senior friends, to ensure they stay warm and have their thermostats working and set at comfortable temperatures. We can all do our part to keep safe when the weather gets bad.

It's Christmastime in Cicero!

We just saw a wonderful celebration of the holiday shortly after Thanksgiving with our annual Christmas in the Park. Many of you came out to enjoy a sleigh ride, watch the lighting of the Cicero Christmas Tree, and, of course, enjoy meeting Santa Claus.

On top of that, you all got to see the official opening of the Bobby Hull Community Ice Rink. I remember when we first opened the rink, with Bobby Hull and other Chicago hockey greats joining Blackhawks owner Rocky Wirtz in dropping the puck on the ice. Many of you were on hand for the celebration and have spent countless hours skating since then. It's bittersweet to know that both Hull and Wirtz have left us this year, but I know they would be thrilled to see so many of you still enjoying the rink today. I hope you all enjoy the rink and the holidays.

And from all of us in the Dominick family and the Cicero Town Board, I hope you all have a Merry Christmas.

Sincerely,

Larry Dominick
Cicero Town President

P.S. As always, please feel free to contact me with concerns, questions, comments or suggestions at larry@thetownofcicero.com. Thank you.

Christmas in the Park Brings Families Out for Holidays

Cicero folks got into the holiday spirit with the start of the yearly Christmas in the Park event. This year's celebration fell on November 26 at Cicero Community Park and had enjoyable activities such as festive music, a chance to meet Santa, holiday treats, sleigh rides, and more. It's been a tradition for a long time, and it also kicks off the ice skating season in Cicero when the Bobby Hull Community Ice Rink opens up for everyone.

"This is a great way to begin the Christmas season, especially since many of our residents make it a family tradition," said Town President Larry Dominick. "What made it even more fun was the snow falling."

During the event, Town Assessor Emilio "Emo" Cundari and Trustee Blanca Vargas lit up the Town Christmas Tree with a big light switch, turning on all the lights. The big tree stood with several smaller ones decorated by different town groups.

"I personally look forward to this almost as much as I do the Thanksgiving turkey this time of year," Cundari said. "The kids, the activities, the ice skating, it all makes it a perfect kickoff to the Christmas season and a wonderful time to spend with friends and family."

Residents enjoy a sleigh ride through Community Park as the snow falls.

Folks fill the tent to enjoy Christmas treats during the Christmas in the Park event.

A special Grinch crashes the opening of the Bobby Hull Community Ice Rink.

Families enjoyed a special moment with Santa Claus, too!

Portillo's Opens in Cicero

After years of anticipation, Cicero welcomed a culinary icon on November 2 when Town President Larry Dominick inaugurated the long-awaited Portillo's. Nestled at 3300 S Cicero Ave, the restaurant represents a significant addition to the town's thriving business landscape.

Dominick expressed pride in bringing Portillo's to his hometown, emphasizing its positive impact on the local economy. The establishment is expected to generate tax revenue and create numerous job opportunities, contributing to the town's continued economic growth.

As the doors swung open, revealing the inviting ambiance of the new Italian beef joint, patrons were greeted by the aroma of delectable dishes and a display of Cicero's rich history. Michael Portillo, the Vice President of Portillo's, shared his pride in incorporating elements of Cicero's past within the restaurant. The walls adorned with photographs and memorabilia serve as a homage to the town's unique heritage, creating a dining experience that is not only delicious but also culturally resonant.

Whether seeking the famous Chicago-style hot dogs or Italian beef sandwiches or indulging in the signature chocolate cake, Portillo's promises a delightful journey for residents and visitors alike.

Dominick invited everyone to savor the flavors and embrace the communal spirit that Portillo's brings to Cicero. As the restaurant begins its journey in the heart of the town, it offers a culinary haven and a celebration of Cicero's past, present, and future. Take advantage of the opportunity to experience the blend of tradition and taste at Cicero's newest business!

Trunk-or-Treat Moves Indoors

Ghosts, princesses, superheroes, and many fun and fancy characters took over Cicero's Community Center to enjoy the annual Trunk-or-Treat event on October 30.

Cicero groups and departments set up more than 30 tables throughout the gymnasium for kids of all ages to show up for a safe and easy way to celebrate Halloween before the holiday's annual trick-or-treating event. Traditionally held at the fairgrounds near Cicero Community Park, the event was held indoors because of the cold weather and threat of snow, keeping children safe while having fun.

"We have been planning this for over a month and wouldn't have been able to be so successful without the help and support of President Larry Dominick, especially as the weather shifted and we had to move things indoors," said Special Events Director Patricia Sturdevant.

Kids spent the late afternoon walking from table to table to pick up treats, toys, books and more, all while showing off their costumes of Super Mario, astronauts, Spider-Man, Princess Peach, fairy queens, and more. Hundreds of families could also enjoy the special train ride through Transylvania, the only outdoor experience during the day.

"Halloween is not only a popular holiday, but it continues the long tradition of finding ways for families to have fun as safely as popular," Dominick said. "Nothing will fully replace trick-or-treating, but we can do what we can to make sure our younger kids can have safe alternatives, especially when the weather turns cold quickly, as it is known to do in our region."

The Trunk-or-Treat event started as a safe alternative to the traditional Halloween celebration held before the pandemic and has become one of the town's more popular events for kids.

Cicero's Mexican Cultural Committee displays its Día de los Muertos theme at the indoor Trunk-or-Treat celebration.

Families dressed up in all the fun as they wandered from table to table, each one decorated by Cicero departments and offices.

Kids received treats and other gifts throughout the Community Center as the weather brought the fun indoors.

From Mad Hatters to ghosts and action heroes, everyone dressed up to have fun at the annual Trunk-or-Treat event.

Town and Clergy Connect and Collaborate

Cicero's clergy committee joined Town President Larry Dominick, the Cicero Board of Trustees and department heads for a special brunch on November 20 at Mr. Stacks Restaurant at 3064 S Cicero.

This unique gathering focused on fostering stronger ties between the religious communities and town officials. Dominick emphasized the significance of this event, stating, "Bringing everyone together is a meaningful way to keep our town's religious communities in continued contact with town officials. This collaboration is essential for the mutual benefit of serving the town as best as we can."

Mr. Stacks provided the space, allowing everyone to enjoy pancakes and other breakfast fare, including omelets, skilletts, and more. Cicero Chaplain Ismael Vargas, who heads the committee, provided words of inspiration, as did other town and religious leaders.

"The relationship between the town and our religious communities is vital to helping residents, whether responding to needs the town is unaware of or having a congregation provide support during times of crisis," Vargas said.

More than two dozen religious leaders belong to the clergy committee, with each one representing most of the Catholic and Protestant denominations in the area, as well as non-denominational leaders.

Town President Larry Dominick (center) is joined by Cicero officials and members of the Clergy Committee at Mr. Stacks in Cicero.

Bikers Spread Joy with Christmas Drive

For the second consecutive year, the rumble of motorcycle engines echoed through the streets of Cicero as Stainless Machine brought in bikers to embark on a charitable mission to collect toys for underprivileged children. Escorted by the town, this annual event has become a heartwarming tradition, marking the official kickoff of the Christmas season on a compassionate note.

Over 50 bikers donned their leather jackets and revved up their engines in the morning hours of November 25. The sight of the procession, led by the gleaming chrome of the Stainless Machine, added a festive spirit to the community.

Town officials, recognizing the significance of fostering goodwill during the holiday season, wholeheartedly support this initiative. The bikers, driven by a shared commitment to making a positive impact, roared through Cicero, collecting toys generously donated by the community.

"This event symbolizes the spirit of giving and unity that defines our town. It's heartening to see Stainless Machine and the community come together for the second year in a row to provide toys for children who deserve a Merry Christmas," said Town President Larry Dominick.

As the Stainless Machine bikers revved their engines for a good cause, they left behind the sound of motorcycles and the resonating warmth of a community united in the spirit of giving.

Bikers from the Stainless Machine bike run show some of the many toys they collected for Cicero children at this year's event.
